Moore Freight Service Awarded by Inc. 500/5000 for Second Consecutive Year

Knoxville, TN, October 6, 2009 - Knoxville, Tennessee-based Moore Freight Service, a company specializing in flat glass transportation, has been awarded by Inc. 500/5000 as one of the fastest growing private companies in the country in 2009. This is Moore Freight Service's second consecutive year to be awarded such an honor by Inc. 500/5000.

The Inc. 500/5000 Awards Ceremony was held in Washington D.C. at The Gaylord National Resort on Friday, September 25th 2009. Dan Moore, Moore Freight Service CEO, was called on stage during the black tie gala to accept the award.

Moore Freight Service has earned its place on Inc. 500/5000's List by the diligent work of the company's valued employees. "Moore Freight's employees are dedicated, committed and knowledgeable. They know the industry they are in and their experience is invaluable to the company," says Dan Moore.

The 2009 Inc. 500/5000 Conference and Awards Ceremony celebrated its 28th anniversary. The events are sponsored by Inc. Magazine, which is the only major business magazine edited exclusively for CEOs. "Each year, this event recognizes the dedication, hard work and remarkable achievement of the country's fastest growing private companies." – Jane Berentson, Editor of Inc. Magazine.

About Moore Freight Service

Moore Freight Service began operations in 2001. It offers motor carrier service for truckload shipments of flat glass. Transporting flat glass presents unique challenges requiring expert knowledge, specific skill and specialized equipment. With its combined over 65 years of industry experience, the safe loading, securing, tarping and transporting of flat glass is the company's expertise.

Moore Freight Service is proud to employ the industry's best drivers, and its trucks, trailers and equipment are all state-of-the-art. Yet, the company proudly considers its greatest assets to be the excellent relationships and reputation it has carefully cultivated with the industry.
